Vacations

There are a great variety of camps offering vacations for teenagers in the United States. There are local day camps that run courses on weekdays, usually between 8 am and 6 pm. They are action-packed, multi-activity courses. There are also residential camps during the summer vacation, where students sleep over. These camps can run for seven days at a time. There are also camps that specialize in special interests, such as art, tennis, dance, football and science.

As it can be considered, there is a classification for vacation: Relaxation, Exploration, Fitness, Water Sports and Excitement.

- I) 1. Do you think in Chile there are vacations for teenagers specifically?

- 2. According to the text, do you think it describes familiar vacations? Why?

- 3. In the text, does it say that vacations can run for a month?

- 4. What kind of vacation do you prefer?

- 5. Do you like going on vacation with your family or with some of your friends or may be both?

- 6. When was your last vacation? Where did you go?

- II) Clasifica y escribe estas actividades con los tipos de vacaciones en el recuadro:
(Puede que alguna se repita dos veces)

Paragliding, Aromatherapy, Birdwatching, Running, Canopy, Swimming, Fishing, Hiking, Dancing, Camping, Bungee Jumping, Meditation, Rafting, Diving, Aerobics, Spinning, Yoga, Guided Tour.
